

Constantine (Dinos) Papapolyzos is an entrepreneur with 30+ years of experience in infrastructure project development, consulting, and technology across Greece, Europe, and the Middle East.

He has extensive expertise in Project Finance and Project Management of large-scale infrastructure projects in Greece and internationally, across sectors such as Energy, Energy Efficiency, Infrastructure, and Water.

He specializes in the design and implementation of PPP/Concession projects and has collaborated with international organizations such as the European Commission, the European Investment Bank (EIB), UEFA, the World Bank, the EBRD, and other financing institutions.

He has mobilized (financed) over €2.5 billion in infrastructure and services projects and has managed contracts and projects with a total value exceeding €4 billion in infrastructure.

He is the Founder/CEO and main shareholder of TREK Development S.A., a leading infrastructure and development company in Southeast Europe with a 30-year presence, listed on the Athens Stock Exchange (Euronext Athens).

He is also the Founder and CEO of TREK DEVELOPMENT sGmbH, based in Munich, Germany, established in 2016.

He is the Founder of EVERCON, an infrastructure development company based in Athens, established in 2022.

He is the Co-founder of HYPERTECH S.A., a pioneering company in the field of innovation and high technology, established in 1997.

He has served as an advisor to various ministries and regional authorities in Greece, the Balkans, and the Mediterranean, and is an experienced speaker at business conferences, TEDx events, and technology forums.

He holds an M.Sc. in Electrical Engineering from the Polytechnic School of New York University (NYU), postgraduate studies in Project Finance from Columbia University, postgraduate studies in Construction Management from Bocconi University, and a B.Sc. in Physics from Aristotle University of Thessaloniki.